HUNS DISCUSS WILSON'S REPLY

DISPLEASED WITH TONE, UNSURE
TAIN ABOUT NATURE OF ANSWER TO BE SENT.

(By the Associated Press)
Bern, Oct. 18.—President Wilson's reply to the German note has created a new state of affairs in diplomatic discussion relative to peace, reports from German sources indicate. The German reply, it is said, will make it understood that the tone employed by the president is open to objection. All Reichstag groups have discussed the reply but no definite line of policy has been determined. The presence of Field Marshal Hindenburg is believed to foreshadow the drafting of the German reply to President Wilson. Under the circumstances it is uncertain whether the Reichstag will meet tomorrow.

GERMANS LOSE THE COAST OF BELGIUM

DEFEATED ARMIES FLEE TO ANTWERP FOR SAFETY. AMERICANS MEET STUBBORN RESISTANCE.

(By the Associated Press)
Paris, Oct. 18.—The Germans have begun a retirement in the area between the Oise and Serre rivers, between Laon and Cambrai, according to an official statement today. The French troops advancing from Archery and Choigny are in pursuit of the German rear guards. Anguicourt has been occupied by the French. In the Argonne region the French have crossed the Aisne near Vouziers. Fighting continues in the area west of Grand Pre.

Germany has apparently lost the whole of the Belguin coast which for four years has been the base of submarine and aerial attacks against England and English shipping. Ostend, Douai and Lille have fallen to the allies. Belgian patrols are said to be in Burges, about eight miles from the Dutch frontier. The German forces defeated and virtually demoralized, are reported in full retreat toward Antwerp.

From reports it would appear that two American contingents are operating on the front east of Cambrai and St. Quentin. One is working with the British in the advance from Le Cateau, and the other is with the French smashing in the right flank of the German salient northeast of Laon. German resistance in both these sectors has been exceedingly stubborn. Continued rains have retarded the American advance in the Argonne sector but in spite of terrible weather, Pershing's men have gained ground in Agonne forest itself. Cote Chatillon a dominating height has been taken, and positions near it are solidly held by the Americans.

DECREASE IN NUMBER OF DEATHS AT ADA

Although there has been no appreciable decrease in the number of influenza and pneumonia cases in Ada during the past twenty-four hours, the number of deaths has shown a marked decrease.

Mack Fitch died about noon today at his home at Portland Park. His wife Mrs. Lossie Fitch, and infant died Wednesday night. The funeral and interment will be held for all tomorrow. A brother of Mr. Fitch's died the early part of the week.

Mrs. Della Andrews died at her home on North Broadway Wednesday afternoon. Shubert Yeldell, a well known citizen of Stratford, died there Wednesday evening about 10 o'clock.

It is reported that the Hun commanders have issued orders to their men to stop destroying and stealing everything in the regions they are evacuating. In fact, it is said they did very little damage to the city of Lille which they left Thursday. Looks like they really are beginning to realize that a day of reckoning is at hand and that Wilson's words of scorn for a people who would commit the atrocities of which they have been guilty have penetrated even their thick hides.

No doubt the Belgians and Serbians are enjoying to the utmost their hour of triumph and home coming. For four years the Huns have held their countries in a grip of steel, the unfortunate inhabitants being subjected to all the cruelties and fiendish ingenuity could devise. Now the day of reckoning has come and they are chasing the enemy out of their little countries and hoping for the dawn of a brighter day for the devastated regions. While the sights that greet the eyes of the returned exiles must be most sickening, they are returning home and that fact means all the world to them.

The average American considers himself as good as any other man on earth, a fact that captured German officers, who think they are a superior race of beings are finding out. A good story is told of an American private who rounded up a bunch of Hun prisoners, including a major. Said Major felt himself too high and mighty to surrender to a common soldier and demanded that an American major be sent for. The Yank gave him a jab with his bayonet, telling Major Hun he was major enough to take charge of him and to come across. The argument of cold steel was effective and there was no more quibbling.

It is now up to Ada citizens to get in behind the emergency hospital and give their earnest support. The Red Cross and business men have come to the rescue of the sufferers by making the hospital possible and the medical fraternity is solidly behind it. The influenza situation must be controlled and this is the best way to control it. Many sufferers, because of poverty, have not had the close attention that will be given them at the hospital and even those more fortunately situated might, in many instances, fared better. Get in behind this, citizens, give what you can, either in cash or something else needed, for many patients will not be able to pay for treatment and the plan is to give them the same care the others get.

Washington, D. C., Oct. 18. Subscriptions reported and estimated up to noon Thursday amount to four million dollars, leaving at least two billion dollars to complete the Fourth Liberty loan and only two days are left within which to raise this vast sum. No country on earth but America could raise so vast a sum in so short a time. America can do it and MUST do it. The destinies of the world and the hopes of civilization are centered upon America. We shall fail in everything we have fought for and hope to gain in this war if the Fourth Liberty loan is defeated. Let every true American citizen today examine himself under the white light of patriotism and say whether or not he has done his utmost in this emergency. The highest obligations of duty and patriotism command every true American to go immediately to his bank or to his liberty loan committee and subscribe to the limit of his ability to the Fourth Liberty Loan. Don't delay; don't wait to be urged; be as quick to do your part in this Fourth Liberty Loan battle as our soldiers in France are quick to obey the orders to charge the enemy. Buy Liberty Bonds on the installment plan if you cannot buy them for cash. Every patriotic bank will help you. If every patriotic citizen will do his duty today victory for the Fourth Liberty Loan is certain. The continued victories of our armies in Europe, the certain defeat of our enemies and the glorious triumph of the cause of liberty depend upon what the American people do in the remaining two days of the Fourth Liberty Loan campaign.

APPEAL OF TEXAS DRAFT REGISTERS COMING UP
(By the Associated Press)

Fort Worth, Tex., Oct. 18.—The appeals of three officials of the Farmers and Laborers' Protective Association, convicted a year ago in Abilene, Tex., after a trial that stirred the whole southwest, will be presented before the United States circuit court of Appeals here next month.

The men were convicted of conspiracy against the government, and their organization had for its insignia, according to District Attorney Odell, a leather strap to represent the slavery of the worker, a dirk as an incentive to self-protection and a pistol as a mark of enmity to capital.

The original trial of the three men, G. T. Bryant, state organizer, E. L. Risley, president, and Samuel J. Powell, secretary, lasted six weeks and more than 500 witnesses were examined. Thirty-seven others named in the indictment were acquitted.

The count on which the three were found guilty charged conspiracy to overthrow and destroy by force the government of the United States and to levy war against it. Charges that a wholesale plan had been evolved to obstruct the selective service law, then before congress, were advanced at the trial.

It was charged that plans were made at meetings to kill conscription officers; that members were urged to buy high-powered rifles; that it was proposed to blow up railroads and take control of telephone and telegraph lines as a means of retarding the raising of an army.

One witness testified that plans had been considered for dynamiting troop trains, looting banks and supply houses. He said this plan had been abandoned in favor of arming all the members for resistance and the extension of organizations to Texas, Oklahoma, Louisiana and Arkansas.

In explaining why members had armed themselves, defense witnesses said they had expected Texas to be invaded by Mexicans if the United States troops went to fight Germany and that the guns were for their protection.

QUICK RELIEF FROM CONSTIPATION

Get Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets

That is the joyful cry of thousands since Dr. Edwards produced Olive Tablets, the substitute for calomel.

Dr. Edwards, a practicing physician for 17 years and calomel's old-time enemy, discovered the formula for Olive Tablets while treating patients for chronic constipation and torpid livers.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets do not contain calomel, but a healing, soothing vegetable laxative.

No griping is the "keynote" of these little sugar-coated, olive-colored tablets. They cause the bowels and liver to act normally. They never force them to unnatural action.

If you have a "dark brown mouth" now and then—a bad breath—a dull, tired feeling—sick headache—torpid liver and are constipated, you'll find quick, sure and only pleasant results from one or two little Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets at bedtime.

Thousands take one or two every night just to keep right. Try them. 10c and 25c per box. All druggists.

RUSSIANS MUST WORK FOR OWN REGENERATION

Archangel, Oct. 18.—Difficulty besets the government of the North and its Allied advisors in their attempt to bring order out of the chaos of nine months of Bolshevik regime in the Archangel province. Slowly but surely, the task is going forward, but no one denies it is a difficult job.

One problem the Allies confront is how to arouse the Russians to work for their own regeneration and to join in the task of shaking off the grip of the Bolsheviks. Urging them to do so, the Svernoie Utro, published here, says:

"The French, British and American soldiers came here from all parts of the world to fight for the freedom and happiness of this country. The Russian people look upon the Allies with envy, with the eyes of a beggar watching a rich neighbor, and they are making but little effort themselves to strive for a happier and freer life. They expect that the others, the Allies for instance, will fight for them."

"Russia is now divided into two camps," declared the Vokroshdenie Sievera. "One is on the side of the monarchists, the Bolsheviks and the Germans; the other, all the democratic elements of Russia, supported by the Allies. The Bolsheviks try to persuade the population that the allied intervention aims to restore monarchy, but the facts show the contrary. Russia must fully realize that the aim of the allies is to lend their assistance for the regeneration of Russia on a sound and democratic basis."

AIRMEN STRIKE TERROR IN HEARTS OF HUNS

London, Oct. 18.—(Correspondence of The Associated Press)—A belt of the Rhine Valley, roughly 250 miles long, from Cologne in the north to the Grand duchy of Baden in the South, a region crowded with war industries and intersected by a railway system of vital strategic importance to the German army in France, is now a definite part of the war zone. This is one of the most striking and significant developments of the Allied campaign, and how big are its possibilities may be gauged by the vast damage, both physical and moral, already inflicted upon the enemy. It is the achievement of the Royal Air force.

Over that region in the last three months the airmen, operating day and night, have made 249 raids, dropping 207 tons of bombs upon enemy railway centers, munition works, poison gas factories, electrical and engineering plants, blast furnaces, aerodromes, and other important military objectives.

The effects of these raids have been of incalculable benefits to the Allies. One of the first was the compulsory withdrawal by the Germans of a large number of their airplanes from the fighting front for the defense of the Rhine.

But a greater gain has been the profound and widespread depression caused to the German people, the "home front," to use the phrase of Ludendorff. Captured letters from places as widely separated as Mannheim and Cologne testify to the terror and panic inspired by the raids among the civil population. Well-to-do families, in increasing numbers, are seeking the temporary security of more distant inland towns. There are indications that the flight of the wealthy is causing intense resentment among the working population who, being for the most part engaged in war industries, are exposed to almost nightly danger from the raids.

But the terror of the German populace is not confined to the territory actually added to the war zone. It exists throughout the country, particularly in far-distant Berlin where preparations already have been made to defend the city against raids.

SPANISH INFLUENZA RAPIDLY SPREADING

Persons Weak and Run-down Easy Victims—Fortify Yourself Against It by Taking Tanlac.

According to late reports issued by State and Federal health authorities the Spanish influenza epidemic is rapidly spreading to all parts of the country, and it now seems that practically every state in the Union will be seriously affected before it runs its course.

It has not only become a great and terrifying menace to the public health but unless checked, it is apt to seriously affect the progress of war work in all its various departments. Already the shipping board has announced that ten per cent of its workers had been affected.

The disease has made its greatest progress in the East where it has claimed its victims by the thousands. Reports from other sections, however, are equally alarming; and both civil and military authorities have warned the public to take every precaution to prevent its further spread. In many cities schools, churches and theatres have been closed and public gatherings of all kinds forbidden.

Medical authorities agree that people who are weak and run-down are the earliest victims of the influenza epidemic. If you find yourself tired, weak and losing flesh, or if you are in a generally run-down condition, or if you catch cold easily this warning should be heeded promptly. You are really in great danger, because the germ of this disease is very catching and you are apt to fall an easy victim if you come in contact with the germs. People who are well and strong are not likely to contract the disease because they are able to throw it off. The common-sense way to keep from taking it is to fortify the system against attack by building up the constitution.

In other words to use the old adage, "An ounce of prevention is worth a pound of cure." And if you are in a sub-normal condition the proper thing to do is to begin immediately to build up your powers of resistance. To accomplish this, nothing on earth will strengthen you and build you up like Tanlac, the powerful reconstructive tonic, which contains the very elements needed by the system to give you fighting strength and ward off the influenza germ.

First of all Tanlac begins its action by creating a good healthy appetite for wholesome, nourishing food, and assists every organ of the body to perform its natural functions thus helping to build up health and strength in the natural way.

Tanlac is also the ideal strengthening tonic for persons who are suffering from the after effects of influenza, Gripe or Bronchial troubles and hundreds of thousands are using it daily with the most gratifying results.

In connection with the Tanlac treatment, it is necessary to keep the bowels open by taking Tanlac Laxative Tablets, samples of which are included with every bottle of Tanlac. It is also important that the every day rules of hygiene be observed; that is, sleep in well ventilated rooms get plenty of fresh air and exercise and keep away from crowds.

Tanlac is sold in Ada by Gwin & Mays Drug Co.

In Memoriam.

Leonidas Robert Estill, B. M. C., U. S. N., was born at Whitesboro, Texas, January 18, 1894, and died while in the service of his country, at Miami, Florida, October 7, 1918.

Leonidas Estill lived most of his life in Texas, graduating with honors from Childress High school with the class of 1912.

In 1914 he entered the employ of the Texas Oil Company at Electra, later being promoted to the auditing department at Houston, Tex. In June, 1917, he enlisted in the navy receiving training at the Great Lakes station; later he was transferred to the Air Station at Miami, Florida, where he was put in charge of the Coast Guard of the Naval Air Station, which responsibility he assumed until his death.

Leonidas was a young man with a most promising future. Being a young man of exemplary habits, strict integrity, pleasing in manner, industrious, always cheerful, he numbered his large circle of friends by his acquaintances. He was always considerate of others and his mother was his closest friend.

The many messages of sympathy and love, as well as the many beautiful floral offerings from friends, the Texas Oil Company, and the wreath of roses from the Coast Guard of the Naval Air Station of Miami, Florida, all speak loudly of him and have helped so much to make the sorrow of the bereaved ones much easier to bear.

While living at Rosewell, New Mexico, he became a Christian at the age of fourteen, was consistent in that life, and a member of the Christian church at Childress, Tex., at the time of his death.

His name has been on the Honor Roll of the First Christian church of this place since his family moved here a few months ago.

Thus another, the second, gold star is seen on our service flag. He was a member of the K. P. Lodge and had been a member of the Y. M. C. A. for nine years.

The funeral services were held Monday morning at 10:30 from the home, conducted by Rev. Clifford B. James, former pastor in Ada, but now of Chickasha, and interment in Rosedale cemetery.

The relatives and friends from out of the city were Mr. and Mrs. E. O. Sturm and wife, the latter a sister of deceased, Mrs. E. G. Whitley and Mrs. E. N. Collins of Electra, Tex., Miss Vivian Smith and mother of Humble, Tex., and Mr. Harry Keck, of Childress, Tex.

BOY SCOUTS

(Conducted by National Council of the Boy Scouts of America.)

SCOUTS HEAR INDIAN TALK

One night while camping on a spot where the celebrated renegade Indian Simon Girty, camped about the year 1800, the members of Troop No. 5 of Wilkinsburg, Pa., were entertained around the campfire by stories of those pioneer days.

When their interest had been roused to a high pitch, they were startled by seeing an Indian chief in full war costume who suddenly stalked from the woods into the circle about the campfire.

It was several minutes before any boy felt sufficiently at ease to ask any questions. The chief broke the silence by expressing himself as being interested in the young pale-face scouts and their work. He explained to the boys the costumes and habits of Indians from the time they were born until they became warriors.

The scoutmaster, in inspecting the camp about midnight, was amused by finding some scout clubs outside a number of the tents. The scouts were prepared for any less friendly visit which might be paid during the hours of darkness.

SCOUTS' FIRE-MAKING TEST.

The most important part of the scout test in fire making is to be sure that the scout will never, under any conditions, build a fire which could get beyond his control, or fall to extinguish the fire even to the last spark before leaving it.

Thousands of acres of valuable woodland, scores of homes and large acres of valuable crops have been destroyed as a result of carelessness in starting or leaving fires.

The scout should know how to lay a fire under any conditions—on stony ground, on heavy grass ground, in timber land, and under these three conditions in a heavy rain.

He should describe the following fires: The hunter's fire, the trapper's fire, the Indian's fire. The question of materials for the fire is one which has troubled some scoutmasters. Should the boy be allowed to use paper or dry kindling carried in the haversack, or oil any other material which he would not ordinarily find in the woods or on the plains? In most cases scoutmasters require the scout to build the fire without any of the products of civilization except matches. Some have reported that they even require the fire to be built without matches.

SCOUT READING A MAP.

Figuring Out the Intricate Directions Proves Interesting to Scouts.

WHERE THE SCOUT MADE GOOD.

Change is a pleasant and a restful experience, but these are neither pleasant nor restful days. Unless scouts and other citizens stick to their jobs like soldiers until the war is won, we will have a change all right—such a change as Belgium and France experienced four bloody years ago.

In all their campaigns of government war work the scouts had a duty to perform and they did it joyously. It means that the Boy Scouts of America have arrived.

The United States of America looks upon them as a part of its working organization. The government makes no more apology for commanding the scouts than for issuing orders to the Atlantic fleet.

The scouts have earned this proud distinction. If any scout persists in asking a change, his scoutmaster will tell him bluntly that there is just one other thing to do—join the slackers.

SCOUTS AID AT TRAIN WRECK.

An eight-coach train, pulled by two engines, was making the Horseshoe Curve south of Vankirk, Pa., when one of the coaches turned on its side. News of the accident reached the camp of the boy scouts from Canonsburg within a few minutes, and although the scouts had nearly two miles to run, they reached the scene in a short time and gave effective help.

The scouts were offered tips in varying amounts by the passengers, but not a scout accepted.

MORE HELP NEEDED AT NEW HOSPITAL

The emergency hospital filled rapidly today and this afternoon held fifteen patients with places reserved for all there is room for. The lower floor of the building is being fitted up to care for others. Among the patients is one entire family of seven persons.

This morning a large quantity of bed clothing and other things were sent in by citizens and some cash donations were made, all of which is most acceptable. However, there is still a need for gowns for the patients and clothing for infants.

More help at the hospital is most urgently needed, especially for tonight. The News is requested to state that volunteers for tonight are badly needed.

The building is the property of R. P. Ford who, when approached by the ones in charge of the movement to turn it into a hospital, generously told them to take it over and do what they pleased with it and not worry about rent.

John P. Crawford, who volunteered some time ago for the officers' training school, has been notified of his acceptance and ordered to report for examination at Oklahoma City Tuesday. When a company of the national guard was organized at Ada three or four years ago, he was the first captain of the organization.

UNCLE SAM TO PAY ANNUAL PREMIUMS

Oklahoma City, Okla., Oct. 18.—(Special)—Drafted and enlisted men who carried life insurance or fraternal benefit membership before they entered the war will be fully protected by the United States Government should they be unable to meet immediate demands for premiums.

To provide against a lapse of such policies or membership in cases of default in payment under the soldiers and sailors civil relief act the government will guarantee to the insurer the payment of any such defaulted premium. The policy will remain in force and the men will have one year after the termination of military service in which to pay up any defaulted premiums before the policy or membership lapses. If a soldier has not paid up by that time the policy terminates and the government will have the right to repay itself out of the cash surrender value of the policy and the surplus, if any, will be turned over to the insured man.

In order to get the benefits of this act application must be made to the War Risk Insurance Bureau, Treasury Department, Washington.

We are in our new store and our lines in shoes, men's and boys clothing and ladies' suits, dresses, coats and waists are large and complete. Burk's. 10-16-2nd—Wed & Fri

PERSHING APPEALS FOR MORE FUEL

U. S. Fuel Administrator Garfield has wired "P. A. Norris, State Fuel Administrator, that he has received the following telegram from General J. J. Pershing, Chief Commander of the American Expeditionary Forces in France:

"Let there be no shortage of coal. Lack of coal means limiting our war industries, railroads and shipping are slowed down, and the navy cannot be provided with means to deliver the telling blows needed to end the war. Without coal we shall be without guns and ammunition to use against the enemy. The man in the mine helps the man on the firing line. The more coal you produce the sooner we shall have peace. Every soldier of the American Expeditionary Forces expects to be backed up by the miners of America, just as labor in every branch of industry at home has stood behind us. We soldiers know that we can depend upon you to do your part as we are doing ours. Pershing."
